

THE CHANGING CHARACTER OF WAR CENTRE

Trinity Term 2022

CCW Tuesday Seminar

Seminars at 1pm. Seminar Room G, Manor Road Building. A sandwich lunch is available from 12.45pm. All welcome, no booking necessary.

Week 1: Tuesday 26 April

Dr. Iacovos Kareklas, CCW

International Law, Politics and Ethics of Humanitarian Military Intervention

Week 2: Tuesday 3 May

Dr. Walter Ladwig III, KCL

Responsible Stakeholder or Challenger?
Assessing India's Foreign Policy Orientation
via Leadership Travel

Week 3: Tuesday 10 May

Maria de Goeij, CCW

Reflexive Control Theory: a Soviet perspective on influence and why it matters in the context of the Russian invasion of Ukraine

Week 4: Tuesday 17 May

Dr Marnie Howlett

Nation-Building in the Borderlands of a Borderland: A Cartographical Examination of the Russia-Ukraine War

CCW Annual Lecture

Wednesday 27 April, 5pm. Pichette Auditorium, Pembroke College.

A drinks reception will be held after the event. All welcome, no booking necessary.

Indo-Pacific Cohesion: AUKUS and Australian National Security Strategy in the 2020s

The Hon George Brandis QC, Australian High Commissioner to the United Kingdom

History of War Seminar

5.15pm, Wharton Room, All Soul's College. See www.talks.ox.ac.uk for Week 2.

Week 2: Wednesday 4 May online

Dr Andrew Ayton, Keele

The King's War at Sea: Armies and Maritime Service in Fourteenth-Century England

Week 4: Wednesday 18 May

Professor Alexander Watson, Goldsmiths

Russian Invasion and the Struggle for Ukrainian Identity - Eastern Galicia, 1914

Week 6: Wednesday 1 June

Professor Andrew Thompson, Oxford

International Law and Wars of Liberation: Rethinking Human Rights at the End of Empire

Week 8: Wednesday 15 June

Dr Gerald Mako, Cambridge

The future is certain, it's the past that keeps changing': The change of Soviet propaganda during WWII